

Historical and Global Perspectives on Provincial and Local/Regional Parks in Canada

29 October 2010 at the GSA Commons

Presentation Program

Panel A: The International Perspective

9:00-10:30:

Constanza Parra: "The Vicissitudes of the French Regional Park Model Illustrated Through the Life History of the Morvan."

Zeb Larson: "Silver Falls State Park and the Early Environmental Movement."

Panel B: Canada's Capital Region

10:45-12:15:

Steve Alexander: "Shifting Landscapes and the Creation of Gatineau Park during the Great Depression."

Brittney Anne Bos: "Cultural Performances in Controlled Landscapes: An Examination of Turn of the Century Urban Parks in Ottawa."

Lunch: 12:15-1:00

Panel C: Vancouver's Metropolis and Urban Sprawl

1:00-2:30:

Sean Kheraj: "Demonstration Wildlife: Negotiating the Animal Landscape of Vancouver's Stanley Park, 1888-1996."

Keith Carlson: "Colonial Views and Indigenous Heritage in Regional District Park Planning."

Panel D: From the Coastal to the Alpine in British Columbia

2:45-4:15:

Jonathan Clapperton: "'Who Opposes Parks, After All?' Sliammon First Nation, BC Parks, and Settler Conservation."

Jeff Slack: "'The Spirit of Adventure, the Lure of the Beautiful, and the Service of Science': The Diversified Charms of Garibaldi's Alpine Playground, 1904-1939."

Panel E: Protecting North America's Badlands

4:30-5:15:

Sterling Evans: "Badlands and Bones: Locating Dinosaur Provincial Park, Alberta, within a Transnational History of North American Badlands."

NETWORK IN CANADIAN HISTORY & ENVIRONMENT

NICHE
NOUVELLE INITIATIVE CANADIENNE EN HISTOIRE DE L'ENVIRONNEMENT

This project has received financial support from NiCHE, the University of Saskatchewan Publications Fund, and the University of Saskatchewan Conference Fund

